4. Personal Commitments:

To study at JIPP, we require personal and academic commitments from your family and you. We would like you to consider the points below prior to applying to JIPP.

Students must complete their learning requirements at Chulalongkorn University (CU), and The University of Queensland (UQ), so they will have to transfer to UQ at the end of their second year. Studying and living in a new environment can be challenging, please reflect on some of the challenges you might encounter during the transfer and let us know if you have experience or anticipate any of these challenges so that we can best support you during the transfer or prevent complications in the transfer to UQ.

1.1 Health Concerns/Medical Conditions:

☐ No ☐ Yes, please specify _____

1.2 Disabilities/Impairments/Injuries:
